AVAILABLE SITES*:

EDUCATION DOCENT: These volunteers assist with student outreach programs, staff the Education Cart, participate in community outreaches, assist with curriculum and program development, and help with animal interactive activities. Other responsibilities may include preparing props and supplies for classes, organizing our library, and facilitating special events.

REEF LIFE (Currently Unavailable): Volunteers may assist and watch over guests as they interact with the marine invertebrates located in the Touch Pool area. They may also monitor food intake of adult sea turtles in our Turtle Lagoon. Other responsibilities include rockwork cleaning, sand filtering, food preparation, water quality testing, invertebrate collection, and other assorted tasks. Be prepared to get wet on a regular basis.

JAPANESE BILINGUAL INTERPRETERS (Currently Unavailable): These Sea Life Park volunteers assist guests and translate public lectures and animal programs into Japanese. Other responsibilities may include proof reading translated materials. Fluency in Japanese is required.

SEABIRD REHABILITATION FACILITY: Volunteers may assist in the intake, care, feeding, and release of sick or injured seabirds. Other responsibilities may include kennel cleaning, habitat cleaning, medical treatment assistance, food preparation, and various other duties.

HAWAIIAN COASTAL GARDEN (Currently Unavailable): We are building an educational garden primarily consisting of native Hawaiian coastal plants. The garden will be used as a learning tool for people who are interested in learning about Hawaiian coastal plants, special adaptations they have, cultural significance, traditional uses, and how coastal plants are important in our island environment. We rely on volunteers to help build, maintain and interpret the garden.
